THIRD PARTY SUGGESTED AT LABOR MEET

In Annual Report, General Organized Ohl Says New Organization May Be Solution

MANTOWOC, Wis.—A better organized coalition between the farmers and the farmers of the formation of a new political party were given as methods for organized labor to follow at the annual convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Labor which opened here today. The feature of the day was the annual report of Henry Ohl the general organizer of the state federation.

Mr. Ohl held that it was futile to look to the present political parties for redress of labor's conditions. Mr. Ohl said:

"The Republican party, however, meritorious its purpose when first formed, has disintegrated into a labor-crushing, profit-protecting machine in the hands of monopolistic interests. Its activities spell exploitation and its platform is purposely made vague to admit of any dishonesty. Some splendid statesmen known as Republicans are wholly out of harmony with its policy and purposes and use it simply as a convenient conveyance to office, where their opposition to autocratic influences is manifested, but too often unavailing. The student of today sees no hope for labor in the Republican party, though as a champion of capitalism it is a most efficient institution.

"The Democratic party long ago has forced the spirit of Jefferson out of its ranks and repudiated its ideals and principles. Long ago it was inherited by men who have kept it alive on racial, religious and other prejudices. While flirting with labor at intervals, its best service has been to those in control of the Republican party, with whom it has made common cause whenever capital and labor clashed. To fail to support the domination of industrial monarchy usually meant political death. As is the case with the Republican party, many estimable men are called Democrats when in fact they resent its allegiance to labor's enemies. Labor has as little to expect from the Democratic party as from the Republican.

"Summing up, we then have:

"1. The Republican party, the party of autocracy and private monopoly, held in contempt but able to the present time to gather in the votes of a blind electorate.

"2. The Democratic party, vacillating and submissive, conscious of its weakness and divided.

"3. The Socialist party, split by internal strife, on the whole sincere and militant, but with inadequate as a political vehicle.

"In what direction labor must turn to seek justice by the route of political action is one of the many problems which is possible of solution only by labor in co-operation with the farmers. The labor union has persistently refused to forsake its post of duty on the economic field and has declined to resolve itself into a political organization, but labor can set in motion a political movement which would open the door to all the unfortunates and women who are now hopelessly split and casting their votes to the four winds.

"The question resolves itself into a possibility of uniting men and women politically whose interests are natural. If the three parties commented on above are unused for whatever reasons, some other vehicle should be created in the interest.

NAVY SCANDAL HITS ROOSEVELT

Daniels Also Denounced in Report On Immorality at Newport

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON—Former Secy. Daniels and former Asst. Secy. Roosevelt of the navy, are denounced for the methods used in investigating the war time scandal among enlisted men at the Newport training station, in the majority report of a senate sub-committee made public Tuesday. At the same time Mr. Roosevelt issued a statement declaring Senators Ball and Hughes, who constitute the majority of the investigating committee, has issued their findings without giving him a hearing.

Most of the details of the Newport scandal as disclosed in the investigation are of an unprintable nature. The crux of the majority report charges is that with the knowledge of Mr. Daniels and Mr. Roosevelt, enlisted men of the navy were improperly used as participants in immoral practices and to secure evidence on which to dismiss offenders from the navy.

Mr. Roosevelt, under whose office the investigation was conducted, was held by the majority to be "morally responsible" for the orders. The findings of a naval court martial which investigated the scandal are introduced in the record for the first time. It held the action of Mr. Roosevelt "an unfortunate and ill advised." Secy. Daniels disapproved the portion of the findings which condemned the method of investigation, and on that point, the committee report today says:

"The committee agrees that Franklin D. Roosevelt's action was only 'unfortunate and ill advised,' but most reprehensible and Mr. Daniels' disapproval of this opinion of the court is to be severely condemned."

Mr. Roosevelt today said that at no time was the work of investigation supervised by himself personally.

Two Burned in Explosion of Moonshine

(By the Associated Press) RACINE, Wis.—Two casualties probably will result from the explosion of what is said to have been a five gallon can of moonshine liquor last midnight in an apartment over a soft drink parlor. Frank Tuzapatis, one of the proprietors, is at a hospital as the result of severe burns sustained when the flaming liquor was showered over his body. Matt Tilla, said to be a bartender in another saloon, is the other victim. Tilla told police officials that a bottle was being filled. In order to see whether the bottle was full, one of the men struck a match, the explosion resulting.

NOTICES ARE RECEIVED BY RESIDENTS

The recent announcement of an increase in rents in the various Nichols apartments throughout the city and the failure to enact any rent legislation in the last legislature is to be followed by a general increase in rents in Madison.

From all parts of the city complaints are now coming of notices of increases to take effect Sept. 1. It is reported that the rent situation is becoming so acute in Madison that traveling men who have lived here for years are now planning on moving to Milwaukee to live.

The occupants of the Hamilton apartments, Hamilton and Johnson streets, have just received notice of an increase of 10 per cent in the rent effective Sept. 1.

The rents in the Florence apartments, 1129 Elizabeth st., have just been raised from $60 to $70. The apartments are owned by Antone Erickson.

The Orchard apartments at 1162 Emerald st. have just been raised from $50 to $65. The apartments are owned by Leonard W. Gay.

The apartments owned by A. A. Emmel at 328 W. Washington ave. have been raised from $70 to $80. It is reported that the rents in the Windsor apartments on Henry st. will soon be increased.

Many people, unable to pay the increased rents, are seeking new places in which to live in the city.

ULSTER JOLTS PEACE HOPES

Ultimatum On Self Determination Halts London Meet

(By the Associated Press) LONDON—Irish negotiations appear to have reached a deadlock in so far as they concern a conference between Lloyd George, British prime minister, Eamonn De Valera, Irish Republican leader, and Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster. This development late Monday night when Sir James, as he departed for Belfast, issued a statement on the subject of "self determination" which is interpreted to mean that he will not compromise on any matters pertaining to Ulster's political rights. While the statement has made a deep impression upon political circles, in many quarters, it is not accepted as final, and hope is expressed that the negotiations for such a conference are not yet ended.

The Ulster premier's statement said that the people of Northern Ireland have "determined" their own parliament "which was opened by his Grace, His Majesty in person" and that Mr. DeValera and his associates, by standing as candidates for the Northern parliament and submitting their policy of "no partition," have admitted the right of self determination on the part of Ulster.

MRS. BERGDOLL SAYS SHE GAVE OFFICER $5,000 FOR BRIBE

Claims She Gave Money in Effort to Reach 'Higher Ups' in Washington

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, of Philadelphia, today told a house committee investigating the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, that she gave $5,000 to Maj. Bruce Campbell, an army officer at Governor's Island for use "among high officials at Washington" to help obtain his freedom. Campbell, she said, first demanded $100,000, but she refused.

Mrs. Bergdoll said she took the money over to the island and handed it to Grover, by whom it was turned over to Campbell. Campbell, she said, told her he had passed the money to another officer. Map. Campbell recently told the committee he did not receive one dollar from the Bergdolls. He has been summoned to Camp Pike to answer the charges of Mrs. Bergdoll.

HIRST, TO REMAIN, IN PLANS TO REORGANIZE ENTIRE HIGHWAY PLAN

Big Conference Will be Held Here August 2 to Adjust Procedure to Views of the Legislature

A. R. Hirst, highway engineer for the past 10 years, will remain with the state commission to direct Wisconsin's road building program which calls for the expenditure of $25,000,000 this year and again in 1922, it can be confidently stated as a result of recent developments.

John A. Hazelwood, chairman of the highway commission said that the commission was "indefinitely of the opinion that Mr. Hirst would reconsider his resignation to take effect January 1, 1922, and agree to stay as engineer despite action of the legislature in killing the highway privilege tax bill."

There is an understanding that the federal government may make special provision for Wisconsin to keep Mr. Hirst in state service, although the commission will not make public the plans it has for retaining its engineer.

The highway commission and divisional engineers will meet in Madison August 2 for the purpose of reorganizing the entire program of highway construction on the basis of conditions as they exist as the result of adverse legislative action. In the opinion of the commission this will be the most important highway meeting in years.

Statement of Gov. Blaine that there would be no special session of the legislature, from present indications, has added to the complications of the situation, and made the reorganization plans more difficult. As a result, it will be necessary to map out the 1922 program with no assurance that the expected federal aid of $2,500,000 can be met.

This will necessitate the use of the $4,000,000 in automobile license fees now devoted to maintenance for construction purposes. Counties would be called on in that case, to provide for maintenance in order to keep roads from deteriorating.

Highway construction is going on in Wisconsin at the present time at an unprecedented rate. Over 60 miles of concrete road was built during the last month, breaking all records, the highway commission says, while 75 miles of concrete are forecast for July, with 300 completed miles.

In addition 2,000 miles of gravel or shale road will be completed during the year, according to Mr. Hirst. Much of this will be on other than trunk highways, and in many instances will be resurfacing of old roads.

The years 1921 and 1922 are well provided for with funds in view of the state mill tax law of $1,770,000.

MADISON MAN TRAILS ROBBERS

E. J. Cunningham is Detective in the Waubesa Bank Case

That the three bank bandits who robbed the State bank of Waubesa, escaped, is the opinion of E. J. Cunningham, investigator of the Wisconsin Bankers' association, who returned from Waubesa, Tuesday. Cunningham said that the posses had the bandits surrounded several times, but that the bandits managed to elude them each time. Cunningham has just been named a deputy prohibition commissioner.

Every means of blockading the roads was used, the investigator declared. Roads leading from Waubesa are blocked by automobiles, tractors, haymows, hay rakes and other farm machinery seriously hindering automobile traffic.

Cunningham said that one of the bandits escaped from the Eau Claire jail several months ago.

MANY CHANGES IN DISTRICTS

Assembly and Senatorial Districts in State Changed

One of the most important bills passed by the legislature in 1921 was the reapportionment of the senate and assembly districts which takes effect April 21, 1922. The joint committee of the senate and assembly reapportioned the state according to the federal census of 1920. The total number of members of the assembly remains at 100, as prescribed in the constitution, and the senate will have its 33 members as usual.

One of the most drastic changes was in Milwaukee county where one assembly district was added by the reapportionment to the 19 formerly had. In this same county the number of state senators was changed from six to seven members.

The committee did nothing relative to the reapportionment of the congressional districts of the state, congress not having acted on the matter.

The changes in the assembly districts are as follows:

The counties of Ashland, Barron, Bayfield, Calumet, Chippewa, Clark, Columbia, Crawford, Door, Dunn, Eau Claire, Green, Iowa, Jackson, Jefferson, Juneau, Kewaunee, La Fayette, Langlade, Lincoln, Marinette, Monroe, Oconto, Ozaukee, Pierce, Polk, Portage, Price, Richland, St. Croix, Sauk, Shawano, Taylor, Trempealeau, Vernon, Walworth, Washington, Waubesa, and Wood shall each constitute an assembly district.

The counties of Adams and Marquette shall constitute an assembly district; Buffalo and Pepin shall constitute an assembly district; Burnett and Washburn shall constitute an assembly district; Florence, Forest and Oneida shall constitute an assembly district; Green Lake and Waushara shall constitute an assembly district; Iron and Vilas shall constitute an assembly district; Rusk and Sawyer shall constitute an assembly district.

Brown county has two districts; Dane has three; Dodge has two; Douglas has two; Fond du Lac has two; Grant has two; Kenosha has two; Marathon has two; Manitowish has two; Outagamie has two; Racine has three; Rock county has two; Sheboygan has two; Waubesa has two; Winnebago has two.

The reapportionment of the senatorial districts reads as follows: Manitowish, Kewaunee and Door shall constitute the first district. Brown and Oconto shall constitute the second district. The eighth, eleventh, fourteenth and twenty-fourth wards of the city of Milwaukee shall constitute the

300 MILLIONS IS DEFICIT OF SHIP BOARD

Books Declared To Be In "Deplorable Condition" by Lasker; Relief is Asked

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON—With the publication Tuesday of revised estimates of the shipping board's deficit for the last fiscal year, showing a total of $380,000,000, $220,000,000 more than previous estimates, Chairman Lasker of the board said he was prepared to appear before congressional committees to explain the condition of the board's finances and asked for a relief appropriation of approximately $300,000,000 for the current fiscal year.

Chairman Lasker declared the books of the shipping board were in a "deplorable condition," and that they "could not have been kept in much different shape had they been kept with a view to cheating and deceiving congress and the country."

"I know and want to explain," the chairman adds, "that Admiral Benson (former chairman of the board) and Auditor Tweedale, had not the remotest thing to do with such gross misrepresentations."

The accounting systems which he said "were started in the stress of war and continued in the stress of incompetency," and though outside auditors had produced the figures given out, "I don't guarantee them even now."

"When I showed the president the figures, he was shocked and dismayed that such a condition could exist," Chairman Lasker continued. "The $300,000,000 received from operations when deducted from the $680,000,000 received by the board from all sources, shows net expenditures of $380,000,000. Although the public records show $100,000,000, to be all that had been appropriated by congress for the year. This is an astonishing case of absolute deception of the country, and of congress. It will be a shock to congress, as it was to the president to hear that the net expense of this enterprise paid out of public funds last year was $380,000,000."

Chairman Lasker explained that the extra funds to keep the establishment going were obtained chiefly from the sale of $200,000,000 of capital assets, ships and supplies, plus $80,000,000 of a balance from funds left from last year.

"Approximately $200,000,000 represents the absolute loss on operations in the fleet," he continued, "and then there was $160,000,000 spent on ship construction. What these newly acquired assets are worth, is highly questionable."

"The plans for the great American Legion, which starts on its first trip in a few days, were drawn seven times. First, the American Legion was an army transport, then a navy transport, then a hospital ship, then a cattle boat, and after spending money on all these blueprints, it was decided to transform her into a passenger ship and she is a beautiful and fine passenger ship. But she cost between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 before she sailed her first mile."

President Harding has instructed the board "that the public is to have the facts—all the facts," Mr. Lasker added.

22,293 Couples Married; 1920 Sets a Record

Wisconsin marriages established a new record during 1920 when 22,293 couples were united in the state, figures compiled by the state board of health show. The nearest approach to the 1920 level was in 1913 with 21,052.

The war and lowered cost of living are given as the causes of the large increase in number of marriages. More than 700,000 young men of marriageable age went out of the state in 1918, the board says, most of whom returned, adding largely increased lists of marriages in 1919 and 1920. State figures for 1920 show that one-third were under 15 years of age; 4,780 were between 15 and 19, with by far the greater number, 9,645, between the ages of 20 and 24. It is shown that 4,434 women married between the ages of 25 and 29; 1,406 between 30 and 34; 633 between 35 and 39; 390 between 40 and 44; 277 between 45 and 49; 147 between 50 and 54; 109 between 55 and 59; and 106 between 60 and 79. LUTHER PASTOR SAYS DANCING BASED ON SEX ATTRACTION

Plays Modern Steps at Convention of Walther League in Milwaukee

(By the Associated Press) MILWAUKEE—"Modern dancing is an exhibition of lewdness based solely on sexual attraction," the Rev. Paul Lindemann, St. Paul, first vice president of the English District of the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran church, told the Walther League Tuesday at its convention.

"The Lutheran church is opposed to modern dancing and to the public dance hall as a stamping ground of immorality," he said.

"Dancing in itself is not harmful. The old fashioned dance was not bad. If it were a love of music and a love of motion that were desired then why should not the young men get that dancing with one another?" "The men are in a sense responsible for the immodest dresses of some of the young women of today. I am not opposed to modern dress as a whole, but it sometimes goes to extremes."

HUBER LAW IS NOW ENFORCED

Factories Must Give Out Work Under Act's Provisions

No factory in the state can lawfully give out work to be manufactured in homes unless it complies with the recently enacted Huber law providing regulation through permits of all sweat shop labor, the industrial commission points out in a statement Tuesday. Establishments which have their manufacturing done by home workers must secure licenses from the local health departments designating the particular rooms in which the work is done. The license is granted only after inspection, and on payment of a $1 fee. To insure manufacture under sanitary conditions and freedom from contagious diseases, standards are to be drafted by the state board of health and the industrial commission.

The new home work law replaces the old one enacted in 1899, which is said to have been a dead letter except in Milwaukee. The law provided for licensing the home workers rather than the factories.

POTATO CROP TAKES SLUMP

Commercial Output Falls 2,400 Car Loads, is Estimate

Wisconsin's commercial potato crop in 1921, based upon July 1 conditions, should be about 23,000 cars of 700 bushels each, compared to 26,000 in 1920, 21,000 in 1919 and 25,200 in 1918, Joseph A. Becker of the Wisconsin Co-operative Crop Reporting Service announces. It is estimated 21.5 per cent of the 1920 crop, 5,600 cars, were never marketed. Because of low prices this quantity was fed to livestock or otherwise disposed of on the farm. The actual shipments of the 1920 crop were approximately 20,400 cars.

Acres planted to potatoes in the commercial district is approximately 1 per cent larger than last year. A surplus of seeds and reduced farm wages at planting time brought this about, although early in the spring it appeared that the acreage would be 6.6 per cent less than last year.

Condition of potatoes in the commercial districts on July 1 indicated 74.2 per cent of normal compared to 92 per cent in 1920 and 93 per cent in 1919. The crop has suffered severely from the hot, dry weather ever since the late potatoes were planted. Much of the seed rotted in the ground, and considerable replanting has been necessary.

Because of cheap seed, an average of 10.01 bushels per acre were planted, compared to the usual rate of 9.2 bushels. Much less small stock, grade number 2, was used this year. Correspondents report that 20.4 per cent of the seed used was number 2 stock, compared to 42 per cent last year. Seventeen and eight tenths per cent of seed planted was treated with chemicals before planting to prevent scab, etc., compared to 16 per cent last year.

Liquor Permits Are Issued To Physicians

Permits are now being issued through the state prohibition commission to over 2,000 Wisconsin physicians and druggists to lawfully handle intoxicating liquors. Each application received by the commissioner is accompanied with written approval of the district attorney. Lists for the state enforcement officers were furnished by the federal officials. Any doctor or druggist selling intoxicating liquors without permit is subject to arrest. Eleven deputy commissioners are now actively at work in Wisconsin.

Veteran Postal Employee and Civil Service Board Secretary Dead

W. A. Munsell, 108 S. Broom st., secretary of the U. S. civil service board, and a life-time resident of Madison, died at St. Mary's hospital last night following an operation for appendicitis. He was taken to the hospital last Friday.

Mr. Munsell was born in Madison June 27, 1876. He was educated in the Madison schools. He had made a name for himself in musical circles and was a violinist of ability. On July 1, 1908, he was made a special clerk and on Oct. 9, 1915, he was raised to the position of chief stamp clerk. A year previous he had received the appointment as secretary of the U. S. civil service board, and he was acting in that capacity at his death.

W. A. Devine, postmaster, who has been associated with him for years, said today that "there never was a more loyal employee and faithful servant."

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to anyone who wants a personal letter."

The Furniture Market

DURING July the manufacturers of furniture and household furnishings exhibit their goods in Chicago and Grand Rapids. Buyers of stores study these exhibits and buy goods for the customers they serve.

Manufacturers have reduced prices as low as can be expected. Goods of a similar kind are not priced as low as in 1914 and before. No one would want furniture prices to be as low as in 1914 and before, as furniture mechanics were working on a very low wage and no one should ask them to go back to a wage that was too low for master workmen—men that produce goods that make homes more comfortable and livable.

"Better American Homes" Is the Keynote Today

Dealers and buyers of furniture, having found that they can replace some of their goods now at less than they paid for them in January, are planning sales for August... Our buyers have been at the market the past week and will be there two weeks more, studying conditions, merchandise and prices. Their reports reach us daily.

Our Furniture Prices Reduced

SEES VARSITY INFLUENCE IN ELECTION

Ald. G. H. Mason in Statement Says Professors Seek to Control Situation

That university and capital influences are seeking to bring about the adoption of the citizens ordinance which will re-organize the Madison health and that these influences have picked out an eastern university for the full time health officer are subjects made in a statement which Ald. G. H. Mason has given to the Capital Times to print. The Capital Times will open its columns to both sides in the campaign preliminary to the board of health election.—The Editor.

BY G. H. MASON.

(Editor from Second Ward.)
NAMES of an article containing an excerpt from a talk by Dr. Hutchings before the Board of Health, which was held in the Madison Hotel, on the 18th day of last April, upon the organization of the present council, an ordinance generally referred to as the "Mason ordinance," was introduced for a full time health officer, and board of health, consisting of five members, one to be a member of the common council, elected annually by the common council, one to be a member of the board of education, elected annually by the board of education, and three citizen members to be elected by the common council. The ordinance imposed powers and duties upon the board of health similar to those imposed by the various other health ordinances herein referred to, including the so called "citizens ordinance." On the 13th day of May the "Mason ordinance" was returned to the council by the mayor without his approval and, lacking the necessary number of votes to pass it over his veto, the measure was thereby killed. On April 22nd, there was filed with the city clerk, a petition with an accompanying ordinance, since known as the "Citizens ordinance," asking the council to pass such ordinance, or as an alternative to submit the question to a vote of the people. The council under date of May 13th refused to pass the "citizens ordinance" and has since ordered the special election asked for, as required by law.

In comparing the ordinance passed by the council and vetoed by the mayor, with the "citizens ordinance" it will be noted that the section providing for a full time health officer, his remuneration, duties, qualifications, etc., read exactly alike.

This is not a controversial point, as all are agreed on this most important section. Having agreed on this issue, it is obvious that the only question involved, is that of the manner by which the health board shall be chosen. In the adjustment of this difference lies the sole reason for holding a special election.

The ordinance vetoed by the mayor provided for the election of four of the five members of the health board by the council, the "citizens ordinance" provides that a majority of such board be appointed by the mayor. This difference is the storm center of the whole controversy.

Ordinarily this difference between the two ordinances would be a trifling matter and one not worth quibbling over, but due to the situation that has developed and become apparent since the question of a full time health officer has been agitated, it is an important one, which if I may be permitted to revert to the record of the closing weeks of the old council, I will endeavor to show.

On the 11th day of February last, there was introduced before the common council, an ordinance providing for a full time health officer and changing the tenure of office

VARSITY GETS HONOR RATING

War Department Classes U. W. in Distinguished Class

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—Thirty four educational institutions in the U. S. were named by the War department Tuesday as "the distinguished colleges and honor military schools, respectively, for 1921."

The recognition gives each college and university the right to one appointment virtually without examination, to the regular army each year, while each of the honor schools is permitted to maintain one representative candidate at West Point. The colleges and universities named include Wisconsin University. The military schools include Northwestern Military and Naval Academy, Wisconsin; Shattuck school, Minnesota.

The next Moose roundup is to be staged at Evansville on Sept. 25. This was decided upon at the legion frolic held Sunday at Watertown. Over 200 Madison Moose were present. Waupaca Post Indignant Over Hospital Site

The Waupaca County Post is indignant over the choice of Madison for the Soldiers' Memorial hospital instead of Waupaca. The vote on the site was as follows: For Madison, Gov. Blaine, Dr. W. F. Lorenz, Edward Barrett, head of the American Legion in Wisconsin Dr. J. G. D. Mack, state engineer and Henry Town, member of the state board of control; for Waupaca, Senators Olson and Ridgway, and Assemblymen Smith and Hess. Whereat the Waupaca Post says, "When the vote was taken and it was found that the four representatives of the people had voted for the segregation of shell shocked soldiers on grounds set apart exclusively for war veterans; that the four salaried officers and employees of the state with Dr. Barrett, head of the legion and prospective employee of the new hospital corps had voted for the location of the Memorial hospital at Mendota, the home of incurables, we were impelled to exclaim, what is the destiny of the people of Wisconsin when subjected to the power of the greedy (if not grafting) members of our multiplicity of middle-some commissions?"

Rev. Lehmann Leaves Church Here Sept. 1

Rev. W. C. Lehmann, pastor of Memorial Reformed church, is to leave soon for Franklin, near Sheboygan, where he has accepted a professorship at the church seminary. When Rev. Lehmann recently presented his resignation the congregation decided to request home mission board to keep him here. Dr. Theodore Bolliger of the board announced at the church Sunday that at a meeting in Indianapolis the board concluded that the resignation of Mr. Lehmann and his acceptance of the professorship was a matter entirely between himself and the college board. Rev. Lehmann will assume his new duties Sept. 1.

THIRD PARTY IS PLAN OF LABOR

ests of the people, not by a group of benevolent individuals who have little understanding of labor's problems, but by those directly affected. Several avenues have been suggested for consideration:

"1. A continuance of the recently formed Farmer-Labor league and an extension of its activities to offices other than the legislature.

"2. Promotion of a political federation of liberal groups who are interested in the welfare of the common people.

"3. A new political party made up of workers, farmers, liberal business and professional men and women in agreement to a program incorporating the 'Next Steps' in civilization.

"It would appear that while the first proposition is not generally considered a lasting solution, it possesses the merit of enabling the workers to maintain a defense until their offensive marching can be set in motion.

"The second suggestion, while promising perhaps greater immediate organization, involves the danger of dissension between entire groups, which might with improper leadership in any of the groups, rent the structure and again make it a prey to capitalistic domination. "The third plan is no doubt the most likely as a permanent institution. A political organization, with a membership comprising liberal men and women intent on securing social justice, separated from capitalistic rule, democratically conducted, undoubtedly, would serve a purpose the accomplishment of which previous attempts have failed in. Are the workers and farmers ready for such a movement?"

EATS ANYTHING PUT ON TABLE

"It would have broken my wife down to even sweep the floor six weeks ago but Tanlac has restored her health so well that she can't find enough to do around the house now," said Ludwig Brander, 1701 Cherry St., Milwaukee, recently.

"My wife has been suffering from stomach and liver trouble for years and she ate so little I don't see how she ever managed to keep up. Why, for weeks at a time she hardly ate enough to keep body and soul together. She suffered so from nervousness that she seemed to stay restless and upset all the time and at night she didn't know what sound sleep was. She looked weak and frail and was run-down completely. "But I'm glad to say that is not the case any longer. She is looking fine and I hardly know when I have seen her in better health. She eats meats and cabbage and things that would have almost killed her before and they never hurt her a particle. Her nerves are steady and she sleeps fine. Whenever any of our friends are around and she goes to praising Tanlac and I always join in and speak a good word too." Tanlac is sold in Madison by the Lucky Pharmacies.—Adv.

INFLUENCE OF 'VARSITY SEEN

of the members of the board of health so that the term of one member would expire annually. This ordinance was referred back to the committee on March 14th, in the form of a substitute ordinance, the only change being, being a provision for a woman member on the board, with the recommendation by the committee that the ordinance be adopted. The ordinance was then referred to the general assembly at the first regular session in April. (April 8th). On April 15th, the date set for the committee's second report, instead of reporting on the original ordinance, the committee reported on a second substitute ordinance, commonly referred to as the "Citizens' ordinance," the only outstanding feature of which was that the majority of the health board be appointed by the mayor instead of elected by the council.

A professor at the university was instrumental in preparing this second substitute ordinance and later appeared before the council, advocating its passage, and has since been a member of the health board. I am told, chief adviser of the group seeking to put across the proposition of appointment by the mayor.

At this meeting of the council, both substitute ordinances were referred to the ordinance committee. At the next meeting of the council, April 15th, no report was presented by the ordinance committee, for the reason the committee was evenly divided on the question of recommending either ordinance for passage. Upon a vote taken at this meeting, the council refused to pass the second substitute ordinance, or "citizens ordinance."

When the organization of the new council, April 15th, the ordinance committee referred to as the "Mason ordinance," was introduced. Meanwhile, 10 members of the council had been elected at the spring election, four of whom were not members of the council when these various health ordinances were being voted upon.

On April 22nd, the first regular meeting following the organization of the new council, the majority of the ordinance committee reported the "Mason ordinance" back with the recommendation that it be adopted, and the ordinance was thereupon adopted by the council, full membership being present.

The group associated with the professor presented to the city clerk, the second "Citizens ordinance" which had previously been refused passage by the council, asking that it be adopted, without alteration, or referred to a vote of the people. These petitions were circulated and signed very largely, if not entirely, after the "Mason ordinance" providing for a full time health officer and board of health of five members had been introduced, and before the new council had opportunity to vote on any health ordinance. The professor and his group had evidently determined to jump the gun, without tolerating a change in it of the slightest character.

The only difference as before stated, between the "Mason ordinance" pending in the council when this position was being signed, consisted of the manner of selecting the three citizens members, the Mason ordinance providing that these citizen members should be elected by the council and the "citizens ordinance" providing that the citizen members should be appointed by the mayor.

There was no contest over the question of a full time health officer or with respect to the powers and duties of a health officer and health board. There was no contest with respect to the number of members of the board of health. There was no contest with respect to the manner of selecting two of the members of the board of health. The two ordinances were alike in all these respects. The only difference lay in the manner of selecting the three citizen members.

The Mason ordinance was reported back and passed by the new council before the "citizens ordinance" with motions was certified to the council by the city clerk, which by the way was done by him at the very last opportunity, namely, on April 22nd, five days after the Mason ordinance had been passed by the council.

As I have before stated, the ordinance voted by the mayor was introduced at the first meeting of the new council. The ordinance right he properly asked, Why do the citizen insist on the right to elect the health board instead of having it appointed by the mayor? One reason is this: The health board elects the health officer, and in view of the aggressive activities of some members of the faculty of the university and employees of the capitol, some of us feel that in a large measure, the adoption of the "Citizens ordinance" will mean the control of the public health activities of the city of Madison by that influence. This influence secured the formal approval of the so-called "citizens ordinance" by various civic organizations and was largely instrumental in circulating the petitions asking the council to adopt the ordinance. Dr. Hutchcroft struck a true note when he said "Those of us who have candidates for members of the health board, do not have the time nor the inclination to interview the twenty city aldermen."

That is the idea exactly, it goes without saying that it is easier to influence, intimidate, coerce and control one man than it is twenty. It is my belief that any one man able to stand up under the pressure that would be brought to bear on him in this case, would be more than a man. In any event the combined judgment of twenty men should be equal to that of one man. We will all agree, that a public health officer should devote his entire time to his work, and that a full time health officer for the city of Madison is much to be desired, yet what is the matter with the Madison health department? Have complaints been made that it is not functioning as efficiently as any like department in the state? Does any one charge, that during the "flu" epidemic the situation was not handled in as thorough and as efficient a manner here as elsewhere? Do you know that we have at present an able, well-qualified, conscientious and fearless health officer as in any city in the state of Wisconsin? Well we have, and I challenge any one to controvert this statement. Do you know that in the event of the "citizens ordinance" being adopted, a certain group will seek to install as health officer of your city, a graduate of an eastern training school, to be your health officer? A man with "special training" as they put it. Do you know that a group of aldermen who have been working and voting for what they conceive to be the right in this matter have been held up to ridicule and scorn by speakers before different social organizations and that a number of such speakers are political appointees, drawing snug salaries from public funds?

Dr. Hutchcroft, if quoted correctly, says the aldermen are seeking to block the issue; as a matter of fact the effort to block the issue comes from the propagandists who are seeking to control the appointment of the health officer, who are industriously fostering the impression that the council is opposing the plan for a full time health officer, when in fact the only question at issue is, Who shall appoint the three members of the health board, the mayor or the common council?

Next Billy climbed to the top of the stable roof, so he could see miles around, but look in what direction he would, no kids were to be seen. The longer they were gone, the more alarmed the family became, and Daisy was on the verge of tears, when Billy Junior said:

"Have you looked inside the barn?" and with one accord they all located, "No."

It took but a few bounds to land Billy at the barn door, but alas! it was shut. He ran around to the back door—it, too, was closed; then to the side door, but all were securely fastened.

"I believe," said Billy, "they are shut in and can't get out."

"Baa, baa, baa," he called through a wide crack.

"Baa, baa, baa," came a weak voice that sounded far away.

Then they heard the patter of little feet on the barn floor, and a little pink nose was pressed against Billy's, through the crack, and a little nameless girl bawled out:

"Oh, papa, I am so glad you have come. Brother is in a hole and can't get out, and somebody shut me in the barn so I could not get out and tell you. Don't you hear him crying now?"

[But you'll have to wait until tomorrow to see how they rescued the twins.]

Billy Whiskers

By Frances Montgomery

"I never saw such lively children in my life," Billy mused when he heard that the kids were lost. "This is twice in one morning that they have run away under the very noses of their mother and grandmother—still, it shows life and energy and I would rather have them that way than little, meek, goody-goody kids."

"We can't find them anywhere," said Nannie, "and it is only a moment ago they were chasing each other around the strawstack playing tag. Daisy and I have looked everywhere, and I can't for the life of me see where they could have disappeared in so short a time. You call for them, Billy; your voice is stronger and louder than mine."

Billy bawled and bawled, until he could have been heard two farms away, but no response came.

"Oh, father," said Daisy, "I'm so afraid they have fallen into the pond and have been drowned."

"No fear of that, my dear, for I have just come from the pond where I was attending to a little business of my own."

"Or they may have crawled into some dirty hole or gone to play with the pigs, and mother and I just finished licking their coats until they shone like satin, so they would look spotless at the baptismal," wailed Daisy.

Just then Daisy spied Billy Jr. coming out of the woods back of the barn, and she ran to get him to help her hunt for her lost babies. When she told their father they were lost, he was quite as excited as herself, and he ran up one strawstack and down another, round the stacks and barns, peering into every crack and corner, even to looking into the pig pen. But no kids were to be seen.

Next Billy climbed to the top of the stable roof, so he could see miles around, but look in what direction he would, no kids were to be seen.

The longer they were gone, the more alarmed the family became, and Daisy was on the verge of tears, when Billy Junior said:

At The Theaters

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Dorothy Dalton is back again in the role of a daughter of the great Canadian northwest, a similar character to that in which she made such a success in "The Flame of the Yukon" several years ago. It was in such a role as she has in "The Idol of the North," J. Clarkson Lillier's story, which may be seen at the Majestic theater that Miss Dalton gained her reputation. Miss Dalton plays Colette Brisson, left without father and mother in a mining town. She obtains a position in the Aurora Borealis, a saloon and dance hall. She soon becomes one of the biggest drawing cards and plays unmercifully with the miners, "trimming" them for all they are worth. She meets Martin Bates, a young engineer who has come from New York after a series of financial difficulties, and who fast becomes a worthless drunkard. In order to get even with the way she has treated them, the miners force her to marry Bates. After the first shock, Colette decides to make the best of it and determines to make a man of him. After many incidents of dramatic interest she succeeds.

AT THE GRAND.

Flora Finch, who has an important character part in "Lessons in Love," the new Connie Talmadge picture at the Grand, was the first woman comic actress in motion pictures. She was for a long time partner of the late John Bunny in his screen comedies. George Fawcett, who has a prominent part in the picture, is another old favorite. He is a veteran of the stage and a pioneer in motion pictures. Kenneth Harlan plays the leading role opposite Connie. These four experts, directed by Chet Whitney, are responsible for the success of "Lessons in Love," and that it is a success is a fact that all who see it will readily agree to. "Lessons in Love" will close its engagement tomorrow.

AT THE STRAND.

Eugene O'Brien in "The Last Door" is being played at the Strand

AT THE MAJESTIC.

The entire action takes place between the dinner hour of one evening and breakfast time the following morning. In this night there is a thrilling escape and chase, a mysterious visit by an elusive adventurer to a house where many jewels are known to be in a safe, a kidnapping, and a love story that has a unique twist at the end. The central figure of "The Last Door" is Somerset Carroll, who for many years has been in South Africa. In the supporting cast is Miss Marjorie Marnfield. Mack Sennett's latest comedy, "Call a Cop," a pleasant reminder of the joys and discomforts of zero weather, are the added attractions. Harrison Ford in "A Heart to Let" will be shown at the Strand, Wednesday to Saturday.

SOX VICTORS IN DOUBLE BILL WITH BOSTON; CUBS WIN

By HOBAN

CHICAGO CLUBS TRIUMPH; RUTH BREAKS RECORD

Circuit Clout Drops 560 Feet From Plate; Yanks Wins From Tygers

CHICAGO — In spite of Dame Fortune, a leak in the aerial dam and several other handicaps the White Sox won both games of a double header Monday from the Red Sox, although it took from near noon until twilight to do it, and those who stayed to root went home to cold suppers. The scores were 5 to 4, ten innings, and 4 to 3 in nine, the second encounter being decided in the last round after it was held up for half an hour by rain.

Cubs Airtight
BROOKLYN, N. Y.—The Cubs were geared high again and gave the Brooklyn champs a decisive licking, with Elmer Ponder's help as a steady and strong pitcher. The count was 8 to 1, and though Ponder was nipped for eleven blows, he was air tight in the pinches and got some rapid fire support from his mates at critical times.

Yankees Win
DETROIT—Babe Ruth hit his longest home run of the season here, sending the ball over the corner of the center field fence in the eighth inning of a game that New York won easily, 10 to 1. The ball hit the ground 560 feet from the home plate. Ruth's former record for the season was 460 feet, the blow being delivered at the Polo grounds. It was Ruth's thirty-sixth circuit drive this year, and was made off Cole. The slugger scored one runner ahead of him.

Reds, 9-9; Phils, 5-5
PHILADELPHIA — Cincinnati took both ends of a double header from Philadelphia by the same score, 9 to 5. Peter Donohue, a Christian Brothers college, Texas, recruit, relieved Marquardt in the first inning of the first game and held the home team to four scattered hits. Eller was the winning pitcher in the second game. Peters, who won the second game on Saturday with a home run, had another circuit drive in the second game.

Indians, 3; Senators, 2
CLEVELAND, O.—Cleveland defeated Washington, 3 to 2, in a pitchers' battle between Sothern and Mogridge. Cleveland scored the tying and winning runs on Sewell's triple, errors by Harris and O'Rourke, and Evans' single.

Browns, 4; Athletics, 2
ST. LOUIS—An error by Galloway, a hit batsman, two passes, and three hits in the eighth inning gave St. Louis four tallies and a 4 to 2 victory over Philadelphia. Harris' winning streak was broken. He previously had pitched eight successive victories for the Athletics.

New York, 12; Pittsburgh, 1
NEW YORK—The New York Nationals scored their second crushing victory over Pittsburgh in the present series, winning 12 to 1. The Giants scored eight runs in the fourth inning, when two pitching youngsters, Morrison and Glazner, were batted hard.

Braves Win
BOSTON—Boston again showed its aggressiveness and defeated St. Louis, 14 to 8, in a slugger match. St. Louis used five pitchers.

Jack Britton Fights To Draw With Walker
NEWARK, N. J.—Jack Britton, welterweight champ, and Mickey Walker, Elizabeth, N. J., fought a 12 round no decision contest with popular opinion divided as to the winner.

200 COMPETE IN WISCONSIN GOLF TOURNEY

Entry List Bigger Than for 1920 Meet at Maple Bluff

(By the Associated Press)
KENOSHA, Wis.—More than 200 players are expected to take part in the annual tournament of the Wisconsin Golf association, which opens here today. The entry list is said to be a record one, topping that of last year's tournament at Maple Bluff, Madison, when 138 competed. A review of the tournaments in 1911 to 1920 inclusive, show E. P. Allis, III, carried off the honors in five of the state contests, while R. P. (Doc) Cavanaugh, Kenosha, was the winner three different times. A. A. "Augie" Jones, of Milwaukee was the star of the 1917 meet. No tournament was held in 1918 because of the war. Much discussion has been heard the last few days regarding the action of the association in ruling to permit non-resident members in good standing affiliated with Wisconsin Golf association to compete in the state tournament. This means if the rule stands that the title may be taken out of the state.

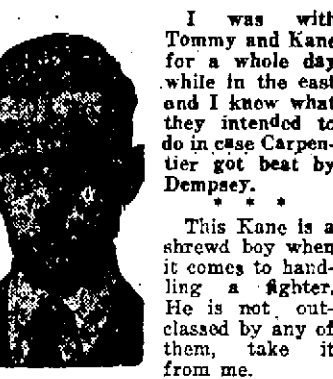

Finals in U. W. Tennis Tournament Today

If the weather permits, the finals of the singles of the summer season tournament will be played off today. The tournament has practically resolved itself into a contest between B. H. Robinson of Indianapolis, Ind., Graham Battles of Peoria, and R. T. Phillips of Boston, Mass. Phillips, because of his long string of victories, is given the edge over the others. If he loses out in the race for the handsome gold filled medal to be given for first place, he is almost sure to cop the bronze medal which the Gym authorities offer as second prize. Both prizes are fitting rewards for those who emerged at the head of the 46 students who started in the tournament. The entry list for the tournament has closed, but those who have been lax in the payment of their fees still have a chance to pay up.

CARPENTIER WILL SEE FAST GO IN GIBBONS BOUT SAYS ROUNDY

With Kane, Mike Gibbons and Jack Britton in Tommy's Camp, Georges Will Have Real Scrap on His Hands, Roundy Claims

Well, old friend Eddie Kane has signed Tommy Gibbons up to meet Carpentier for the month of October, for the light heavyweight title of the world.

I was with Tommy and Kane for a whole day while in the east and I know what they intended to do in case Carpentier got beat by Dempsey.

This Kane is a shrewd boy when it comes to handling a fighter. He is not outclassed by any of them, take it from me.

While they were in the east they had a talk with Clay Turner, an old Madison boy, who had his first fight at Turner hall. Don't you remember that match. He fought a furious ten round go with a fellow named Summers.

I and Frankie Bliss helped Clay condition for that fight. We ran around third lake with him twice in that one week. Clay was part white and colored, and in the east fought under the title "The Indian."

He has not fought any battles for over a year now. He told me that his hands were in a bad way and would not hold up in the late matches. He was the best fighting man that was ever turned out in this town.

He has fought Tommy Gibbons three times and also has boxed Mike Gibbons, once 5 years ago in a ten round tilt. He learned all his boxing under Mike Gibbons at St. Paul. They like Clay. He sure was a fellow that was loved by all around here. In other words, he was a white man.

He has fought Grebb, Levinsky, Chip, Gibbons, Dillon, and all leading heavy and light heavyweights in his time. And I got a good line from him on things for this coming match. He also sends his regards to all Madison fans. He was Dempsey's sparring partner for the Willard match.

With Kane and Mike Gibbons and Jack Britton in Tommy's camp make up your mind that Carpentier will see the best piece of boxing machinery that ever stood up before him. Dempsey of course is a fighter and not a boxer and might whip both of them in one afternoon.

I know that Dempsey never will train hard for another big fight. That is the hardest thing on the fighters, that training spell and how Jack did dread it this time and needed all kinds of coaxing to hustle in his work. I could see on his lips the last day of his training: "Never again!"

And the next good man that needs Dempsey for the little about next summer is due to knock the crown off his shoulders, as Jack has held it longer than any heavyweight has for years.

And do not think that both these fighters don't realize what is before them in knocking each other out in this match.

The Gibbons boys are smart men and business men. They belong to all the best clubs in the country. Mike owns at least 12 apartment houses in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

I wish to inform the world that Skinny Kaeche is the fish of the Tri-County league. I took him in camp again Sunday on the Wannakee game. He really was afraid he could not get a bet up. I had the nicest little supper and had Camel and his wife as my guests Sunday night. Thank you!

I also bought my new straw hat off Skinny on the last Madison-Edgerton game. I think that there are lots of people in Wannakee that are eating on him this week. Why don't you put a notice in the paper as to where you will be next Sunday? Don't push, boys, I saw him first.

They claim that the ball game at Stoughton last Sunday was as fast a game and in big league style that was ever played around here. Both teams fielded in good shape, but Stoughton's work on the bases, they say, was the winning point in the game.

RICKARD SIGNS GIBBONS WITH FRENCH BOXER

St. Paul Scrapper to Meet Carpentier for Light Heavyweight Title

NEW YORK—Tom Gibbons, the St. Paul scrapper, has been selected as Georges Carpentier's next opponent. Eddie Kane, who pilots the affairs of Thomas, stepped in on Tex Rickard, and, after a conference lasting less than half an hour, Kane tossed his signature all over the dotted line calling for a contest to be staged the second week in October for the light heavyweight championship of the world.

It has not been definitely settled whether the battle will be held at Jersey City or at Madison Square Garden. The weight will be 175 pounds, but the number of bouts will be determined when the battleground is finally selected.

Kane promised Rickard that he will have his protégé on the scene of the battleground three weeks before the bout. Gibbons is now on a vacation in the Minnesota woods, where he will remain until called out for training. Kane is dead sure that Gibbons will take the flashy French fighter and then for a trip with the champion, Dempsey.

WATER MEET WILL BE AT TENNEY PARK

Events for Boys and Girls Scheduled for Wednesday Afternoon

Madison's two public playgrounds, at Tenney and Brittingham parks, which opened five weeks ago, have had enormous attendances during the past three or four weeks. Interest in playground baseball games, and other sports draw large crowds. The average attendance at Tenney park during the past five weeks has been 3,700, at Brittingham 1,500. The third week after the official opening saw more people at the parks than any week this year. During the third week after the official opening of the playgrounds over 5,100 persons either played or went swimming at Tenney park, while during the same period, over 25,000 enjoyed themselves at Brittingham.

Wednesday afternoon at 3 there will be a swimming meet at Tenney park for boys and girls. Otto J. Endres, physical director in Madison public schools, and summer playground director, stated this morning that efforts are being made to have prizes of some kind offered to the winners. The following events have been arranged:

Boys 14-18—diving, plain front dive, back dive, and one optional; plunge for distance; under water swim for distance; 50-yard dash; 100-yard swim (any stroke); 50-yard (back stroke).
Boys under 14 years—diving, plain dive, and one optional; plunge for distance; under water swim; 25-yard dash; 50-yard swim (any stroke); 25-yard back stroke.

FOREIGN OILS OPEN STRONG

Rejection by House of Proposed
Tariff is Held
Cause

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK—Foreign oils were active and strong at the opening of Tuesday's stock market. Rejection by the house of the proposed oil tax in the tariff bill prompted heavy short covering. Mexican Petroleum recorded an initial advance of 4 1/2 points and gains of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 were made by Pan-American, General Asphalt and Atlantic Gulf. Motors and their specialties also strengthened, but steel and equipment weakened slightly. Further weakness was noted in foreign exchange, with the British demand rate at the year's new low quotation of 8.58 1/2.

The Tables On This Page

Labor Has Opportunity to Find Its Friends and Enemies; Should Be Used in Next Campaign

THE CAPITAL TIMES is printing on this page today the roll call of Wisconsin labor on the record of members of the 1921 legislature.

The tables herewith shown form a graphic chart of those who were sympathetic to the needs of the man who toils and those who voted against the man who has to labor for a living. The tables herewith produced were submitted to the annual convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Labor being held at Manitowoc today. They were prepared by the legislative committee of the organization.

A list of representative bills in which labor was interested are listed and numbered. The bills are numbered in the table and the record on any bill can be found by locating the number in the table corresponding to the bill listed herewith. For instance: Bill No. 1 in the assembly table is the general eight hour law. The vote of the members of the assembly on the general eight hour law will be found in column one of the assembly table.

The character X indicates a vote in favor of the workers. The character O indicates a vote against labor. The character A means Absent. The character R means republican, the character D means democrat, and S means socialist.

Labor didn't fare very well in this legislature. Labor bills were slaughtered throughout the session. Labor, in the accompanying tables, can tell its friends and enemies.

Voice of the People

THE BONUS QUESTION.
[To The Editor:] Those who read the letter of Mr. W. P. Wheeler in the Capital Times of July 14 were no doubt impressed with the fact that Mr. Wheeler reasoned well from his own standpoint. But things change. I have myself seen that soldier patent of 160 acres develop into $75,000 farm, left by the soldier to his estate. It was a good bonus that. However to discuss those bygone days would only be a matter of going still further backward and then some more. We are dealing with the present now. The world war soldiers are told to go to work, and they are working. Some are dying at home or a hospital, from injuries sustained at the front. We are burying some at Stoughton, at Edgerton and other neighboring points. William Randolph Hearst says in a letter to his editors:—

"You can get contributions for Armenia, or any kind of an out of the way place in the world, but you cannot get anything for our American soldiers. It is unbelievable and incomprehensible."

Hon. Joseph W. Fordney, representative from Michigan, sponsor for the bonus bill, which has been laid over, has this to say:—"I have never been able to feel any patience with a system of policy, which permits men to stop bullets with their bodies at a dollar a day and to make bullets with their hands at eight, ten and twelve dollars a day. Hundreds of thousands of men of military age, exempted, or placed in deferred classes, in safety and ease, were earning neat little gold nest eggs, while our men on the other side, in privation and danger, were earning gold service stripes. It occurs to me that that scales of justice under such procedure were hopelessly out of balance and that they should be set even as nearly as possible at our first opportunity."

"There is an account to settle between those who profited from the war and those who lost by it." Mr. Wheeler also profited by the war, unless he was specially unfortunate. As officers would likely be left out of the bonus, it would have no interest for me except to see justice done. One comes home from the front and finds his friend John, riding in an auto and with money in the bank. One has one month's extra pay and car fare from muster out point. Both men had worked together at the same bench, earning the same wages prior to the war.—C. J. Rollis, Stoughton, Wis.

BOXING EXHIBITIONS
[To The Editor:] The Capital Times is to be congratulated for having a man on its staff, who is truthful and fearless in his criticisms. It is unnecessary for me to mention that I refer to Roundy, the well known Madison sport critic and proponent.

Roundy's Razberries column is one of the features of the Capital Times and doubtless has greatly contributed to the popularity of this paper. Roundy's opinions are respected all over the state. I understand that he has picked 38 winners out of 38 contests in football, basketball, and boxing. He was sent to the Dempsey fight by the Madison business men, who fully appreciate his account of the fight.
